Massage and Craniosacral Therapy

Practice Policies

Please arrive on time or a few minutes early. Your session will end at the scheduled time, regardless of your arrival time. Clients who arrive more than 20 minutes after their scheduled time are charged for the full cost of the service booked and are rescheduled to a later date.

Danelle cannot work on clients who are contagious, have a fever, are sick or have certain medical conditions. Additionally, she cannot work on clients who appear intoxicated or otherwise compromised. If you have any questions about your ability to receive massage or craniosacral therapy, please contact Danelle Aurilio, LMT before your appointment at 360-473-9716.

Please communicate clearly with Danelle if you experience discomfort in any way.

Massage therapists cannot diagnose any medical condition.

Licensed massage therapists are health care providers, therefore the massage is completely non-sexual. If, at any time, the client engages in anything that is overtly sexual or perceived to be sexual in nature, the bodywork session will end and the client will be asked to leave. Clients who engage in any activity of this nature are no longer accepted at Nourish Massage and Craniosacral Therapy.

A parent or guardian must be in the room during the treatment if the client is 13 years old or younger. If the client is 14-17 years old, the parent or guardian must remain in the building during the treatment session.

Nourish accepts cash, check, credit card, debit card or HSA card as forms of payment. Payment will be accepted before or upon completion of the session. If Danelle needs to interrupt your session for a midwifery-related issue, she will refund the fee corresponding to the percentage of appointment time missed and reschedule you for another appointment as needed, with $10 off your next appointment. Within 24 hours of booking, Danelle will clarify her midwifery call status ("On" - which has potential for interruption and rescheduling if she gets a call during your session, or "Off"-with no midwifery obligation during your appointment and no likelihood of interruption). This way, you can choose an appointment time that suits your preference.

Massage therapists are bound by privacy laws. Your privacy is completely maintained as is required by law. Your medical information will only be shared with other providers if it has been requested through proper and legal methods.

Please understand that your time commitment begins at the moment you reserve a massage. In order to make it fair for everyone, please consider your schedule carefully and don't commit to a time that you feel may be questionable. There are times when a cancellation is necessary, but please give an advanced notice whenever possible. Missed or cancelled appointments (emergencies excluded) without twenty-four (24) hour notice will be charged in full for the missed session.

With my signature, I acknowledge that I have read and understand the above financial policy information and cancellation policy, and I understand I am personally responsible for any and all charges for services I receive, and/or services that I authorize for any children for which I am a legal guardian. I further understand missed or cancelled appointments are subject to payment in full for the missed session.
